BIG DEFALCATION.

The City Treasurer of St. Louis Short in His Accounts.

PROBABLY CAUSED BY HIS SON.

At Any Rate the Young Man, Who Was the Treasurer's Chief Clerk, Ends His Existence with a Revolver—The Amount of the Defalcation Now Amounts to $63,020.16.

St. Louis, Dec. 20.—About 6 o'clock yesterday morning the watchman in the city hall discovered a fire in a closet in the private office of the city treasurer, W. J. Foerstel, in which papers and documents of various kinds pertaining to the office were stored. The fire was soon quenched and the damage will not amount to much, the papers having been but of little value. About 9 o'clock word was received that Edward Foerstel, son of the treasurer and also his chief clerk, had shot himself at his home at 2112 Pine street. This event was immediately connected with the fire and a suspicion was aroused that young Foerstel was short in his accounts and the fire had been started to destroy the evidence of the defalcation. It has been known for some time that Edward Foerstel had negotiated a loan through a man named T. W. You, and some of the notes given by You, who, it appears, was only a go-between for the endorsement of Michael J. Foerstel. These endorsements were declared to be forgeries by Mr. Foerstel.

Young Foerstel died at 10:20 a. m. It appears that he stood before the mirror of his dresser and fired the ball into his right temple inflicting a large ragged wound. He fell to the floor unconscious and remained in that condition until he died. Nothing was found in his room or on his person that would indicate the cause of the act. The young man was seen in the treasury office Sunday afternoon and the door of the office vault was found open when the firemen entered the room yesterday morning, but the door of the inner safe was locked.

Upon examination a shortage of $63,020.16 has been found in the city treasurer's accounts. Acting Mayor Walbridge immediately ordered the city auditor and Comptroller Stevenson to take charge of the books in the office of the treasurer. Last night Comptroller Stevenson made a partial report to Acting Mayor Walbridge, in which he states that Treasurer Foerstel is $63,000 short in his accounts.

The acting mayor immediately suspended the treasurer, who has just received official notice of such suspension. The city has $800,000 in three and one-half per cent. bonds in New York and Boston now. The developments yesterday will undoubtedly affect their value and perhaps injure the credit of the city for some time to come. Charles Parsons, a prominent banker, has been appointed to succeed Foerstel as treasurer temporarily. He filed his bond within an hour. He is ex-president of the American Bankers' association, and one of the best known financiers in the United States.

BRUTAL OUTRAGE.

A Young Girl—Assaulted by an Unknown Villain.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 20.—The boldest, as well as the most brutal crime that has disgraced the history of the city, was enacted yesterday at noon. The residence of Mr. M. R. Jones, 246 South Third street, was the scene of the outrage. For some time Mary Donaldson, a girl sixteen years old, has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Jones. She has been an invalid for nearly three months, being confined to her bed over half of that time. While lying in bed this noon a man entered the room by the doorway from the hall. She dreamed of no harm, because she thought it was a friend, possibly her pastor. The fellow, however, locked the door behind him, sprang quickly to the second door in the room, locked it, and then pulled the shutters close.

Miss Donaldson was too frightened to scream for help. The fellow then went to the bedside, picked up a pillow case that lay near, and making a bandage of it tied it around her head, closing the jaws so firmly that she could not utter a sound. He then took another piece of cloth and blinded her eyes. Then he began to tear clothing from her person and she became unconscious, when the brute accomplished his fiendish purpose. How long she lay in this senseless condition there is no telling, but after a time Mrs. Jones started for Miss Donaldson's room and to her astonishment she found the door locked. After a time the door was forced open and Miss Donaldson was found lying on the bed in a nude condition, and to all appearances dead. Help was called and after long efforts the girl was restored to consciousness, when she told what she knew of the outrage. She could give no description of the villain. Miss Donaldson is in a very critical condition.

Found Dead in a Ditch.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Dec. 20.—Andrew Shults, aged twenty-two, son of Augustus Shults, a wealthy farmer and a candidate for representative at the state election, was found dead in the ditch by the roadside Sunday night. His buggy had run off the end of a culvert, throwing him out into fourteen inches of water. He was drowned.

The Knife Pierced Her Heart.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Dec. 20.—Minnie Tucker, of Todd & Company, fell with an open knife in her hand while crossing a fence, and the point of the knife pierced her heart, killing her instantly.

Club President Dead.

HAVANA, Dec. 20.—The Marquis de Sandoval, president of the Union club, died yesterday.

THE CURRENT OF DEATH.

It is Turned on and Another Murderer is Out of the Way.

SING SING, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Fred McGuire was electrocuted at 11:18 yesterday morning. Warden Brown gave the signal at 11:10.50 and the current was turned on. The subject jumped and strained against the straps, and the air forced from the lungs made a sound like a deep moan. At 11:11.02 the current was turned off at a signal from Dr. Irvine, the prison physician. The muscles relaxed and the body sank back limp and apparently lifeless in the chair. Almost instantly the current was turned on again. The body straightened at the straps again, and was rigid for three seconds, when the current was turned off.

The body settled back in the chair and for two minutes all present watched for signs of life. There were none. Drs. Irvine and Abbott at 11:20 pronounced the man dead. The other physicians were invited to examine the body. No indications of burning or marks of any kind were to be discovered. Dr. Abbott, who has been present at two former electrocutions, said that it was the most successful that has taken place. He said that without question the man was killed twelve seconds after the current was turned on for the first contact and that he was unconscious from the instant the current reached his body.

The crime for which McGuire paid the death penalty was the killing of Mrs. Amelia Gregory, wife of Noah Gregory, a farmer and tax collector of Middletown, Orange county, on Oct. 14, 1891.

The crime was committed for robbery. McGuire was a farmhand employed by Gregory. He knew that his employer had collected $130 and had it in the house. On the afternoon in question he went to Gregory's house while the farmer was in the field with his hands, and attempted to get the money. Mrs. Gregory was in the house alone. When McGuire found out that he was discovered he drew a revolver and fired two shots into her head which did not kill her. Then he took an earthen vessel and battered her brains out.

Among those who worked for Mr. Gregory was a man named Warren B. Brazington. He was arrested, charged with the crime. He made a confession, as he knew that McGuire had committed the murder, and showed that he was innocent. He was discharged from custody.

McGuire stayed around the place for a few days, and was arrested. He, however, was discharged and went to Pennsylvania with his mistress, Sarah Brown. He was again arrested upon the confession of Brazington in Gaillon, Pa., and brought back to Middletown, where he made a confession, admitting that he killed the woman. He was tried and found guilty, and sentenced by Judge Bartlett to death in the electrical chair.

DIED A PAUPER.

Within Sight of His Once Happy Home Near Monon, Ind.

MONON, Dec. 20.—A few miles southwest of Monon there has lived for a good many years an old Irish couple—Anthony Loftus and wife—on a farm bought by their own hard earnings. They were old and worn out with a life of toil.

A few weeks ago some sharpers from Ohio ingratiated themselves into the good will of these aged people, and induced them to trade their farm, stock and household goods, in fact everything, for a farm in Ohio.

The couple and their children went to Ohio and found practically nothing, not even a shelter for themselves. They came back in the neighborhood of their old home, remained over night with a neighbor, and went next morning to the poor house, where the old man was stricken with paralysis from grief and a broken heart, and died. He was buried yesterday a pauper.

Mine Shaft Hurned.

BRAZIL, Ind., Dec. 20.—The large shaft house at the mine of the Schrepperman Coal company, two miles south of the city, was burned to the ground Sunday night. The fire originated in the engine house and spread rapidly to the oil house and to other buildings. The flames crept down the shaft hole, where a large number of men were at work, but all made their escape without injury. The loss is about $12,000; insurance only $3,000. The company had just opened the shaft, and the fire will prove disastrous to it.

Indicted for Embezzlement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 20.—H. H. Buscher, cashier, and W. T. Snyder, bookkeeper, at the freight office of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, were indicted yesterday by the county grand jury for embezzlement. The amount taken, as charged in the indictment, was $7,338. Buscher is under bond, but Snyder has fled the country. Buscher is said to have used his part of the money in fixing up a house to live in, being engaged to be married and the nuptials to have taken place Christmas.

Case Dismissed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The important case of Henry L. Yesler, plaintiff in error, vs. the board of harbor line commissioners of the state of Washington, involving harbor rights of great present and immense prospective value along the water front of Seattle, was yesterday dismissed by the United States supreme court for want of jurisdiction.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

CENTRAL CITY, Ky., Dec. 20.—Passenger train No. 6 on the Newport News and Mississippi Valley road was wrecked near Eddyville, three cars rolling over into a ditch. It is reported that three or four passengers were killed and several injured. Conductor Carter's shoulder was dislocated. A broken rail was the cause of the accident.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

NOTHING DONE IN EITHER BODY.

The Death of Senator Gibson Announced in the Senate and Out of Respect to His Memory That Body Adjourns—Only a Small Attendance in the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The attendance of senators yesterday was very small, not more than forty being in the chamber when opening prayer was offered by Chaplain Butler. The desk and chair recently occupied by Mr. Gibson, of Louisiana, were draped in black, and the death of that senator last Thursday, as well as the alarming illness of Mr. Blaine, was feelingly referred to in these sentences in chaplain's prayer:

"Look in mercy upon us as we again stand in the shadow of death thrown upon this chamber. Regard in great mercy thy servant, to whose sick bed so many eyes and hearts are now turned. We thank Thee for his long and useful life. If it please Thee, spare that life, and restore and strengthen it; and give peace to him and to us who watch so tenderly in this time of sickness."

As soon as Thursday's journal was read Mr. Gorman, Democrat of Maryland, arose and announced the death of Senator Gibson in these words: "At the request of the senator from Louisiana, Mr. White, who is now engaged in rendering affectionate services to his colleague, it is made my business today to announce to the senate the death of the Hon. Randall Lee Gibson, the senior senator from the state of Louisiana. After a lingering illness he expired peacefully at Hot Springs, Ark., on Thursday last. I cannot make this announcement without expressing something of sorrow which this intelligence has brought to the senate. Senator Gibson held a very high place in the estimation and affections of his associates in this body. His great personal worth and his eminent public services had made their impression on our hearts and judgments."

"We feel and deplore the unspeakable loss which the senate, his state and the country bear in his death. His inestimable value as a senator and as a man is well known to all of us. His death is a profound affliction to us, and a serious bereavement to his people and the country. He was a great and a good man. His mental faculties and his moral qualities were of a very high order. It is not too much to say that his love for Louisiana had no limit, and his large heart embraced in its patriotism the whole Union. He has left to his countrymen the example of a useful, honorable and patriotic life, and he has left to us—his survivors, here—the memory of a friendship unalloyed by regret."

Mr. Gorman closed by offering the usual resolutions expressive of the senate's profound sorrow at the death of Mr. Gibson and for the appointment of a committee to attend the funeral at Lexington, Ky.

The resolutions were adopted; the committee was announced as follows: Messrs. White, Democrat, of Louisiana; Butler, Democrat, of South Carolina; Gordon, Democrat, of South Carolina; Pettigrew, Republican, of South Dakota; and Shoup, Republican, of Idaho, and the senate at 12:15, as a further mark of respect, adjourned.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The small attendance in the house yesterday was an indication that no bills of popular interest would be called up or passed during suspension day. On the bill increasing the pension of veterans of the Mexican war who are now receiving $8 a month the yeas and nays were ordered, and an exact quorum—167—voted.

Then without objection a bill limiting the jurisdiction of the courts of the United States was passed. Its advocate, Culbertson, Democrat, of Texas, is a general favorite on both sides of the house and when he says that a legal bill is a proper one, his ipse dixit carries great strength.

BLAINE BETTER.

His Physicians Report Him Resting Easily and Much Improved.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—"Mr. Blaine is resting easily," said Dr. Johnson, his physician, at midnight, in reply to the usual questioning. "Very much to my gratification, I found him awake and apparently cheerful. He had partaken of nourishment throughout the evening and the family were also more cheerful. Dr. Loomis' speedy return to New York is evidence that we do not consider Mr. Blaine in any immediate danger. This last call of mine was not originally intended, but as I was out with my family making social calls at a rather late hour I thought I would run in and see Mr. Blaine before retiring. During my stay he conversed with me at considerable length and I shall be greatly surprised if my services are needed at any time during the night."

The reassuring reports of Mr. Blaine's physicians have reduced the number of callers at the house in a remarkable degree. None of the scenes of Sunday night, when crowds of people gathered in front of the house, called thither by the report that Mr. Blaine was dying, were repeated last night.

Counterfeit Silver Dollars.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 20.—The federal authorities have discovered that this city is flooded with counterfeit silver dollars and an inquiry is now in progress with a hope of discovering the manufacturer. The authorities believe that the spurious coin is made here from the fact that so much of it is in circulation and that a similar condition does not obtain anywhere else.

M. HERZ DENIES IT.

These Vast Sums Were in Settlement of Private Debts, He Says.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The Echo of this city publishes an interview with M. Cornelius Herz, who, it is charged, is deeply implicated in the Panama canal scandal. In the interview M. Herz declares that he had nothing to do with the affairs of the Panama company. At the time it is charged that the wholesale bribery was going on—in 1888—he was living in Frankfurt, Germany. He then received two checks for 1,000,000 francs each from Baron de Klenach; but these checks were given in settlement of a private debt. M. Herz says he instructed the Rothschilds, of Frankfurt, to place the amounts of these checks to his credit with the Rothschilds, of Paris, and afterwards he used the total sum called for by the two checks in his private affairs.

The Echo adds that in 1889 M. Herz applied to the United States legation for a passport. His papers were irregular, and Mr. McLane, the then American minister, hesitated to issue a passport to him. When he found that there was some question about the legation's right to issue a passport he had asked for, M. Herz made lavish donations to the American charities in Paris, in the meantime urging that the passport be issued. He succeeded finally in obtaining the desired document, which was issued to him by the authorities at Washington to whom the case was referred by the legation. Since that time M. Herz has not visited the legation, and has not been seen in American society.

Pity.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The Paris correspondent of The Times, referring to the arrest of Panama canal directors, says:

"A sentiment of pity prevails that so violent a blow has been struck at them, and especially at M. De Lesseps, whose name should have shielded him from such a misfortune. The political character of the arrests is beyond question, indicating the direct struggle for supremacy between the government and investigating committee. Two things now strike everybody:

First, that no legal enactment warrants the arrest and solitary confinement of these men; and, second, that improper rigor is shown by subjecting them to the degrading treatment that is applied to ordinary criminals. The government, like a hunted stag, leaps over one obstacle without considering what lies on the other side. Those who loose the torrent of accusations will have to expiate the mischief done when France recovers herself."

De Lesseps Defends Himself.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—The Paris correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says that when M. Prinot, the investigating magistrate, talked with Ferdinand De Lesseps, at Chateau Lachensaye, the latter eloquently defended his own and the company's action. He compared himself with an architect whose estimates had been exceeded and declared that no blame could be attached to him.

HOMESTEAD POISONING.

Hugh Dempsey Arrested and Placed Under a Heavy Bond.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 20.—District Attorney Burleigh took a hand in the Homestead poisoning case yesterday and, as a result, Hugh Dempsey, district master workman No. 3, Knights of Labor, is under $2,500 bail for trial at court on a charge of felonious assault and battery in administering poison or causing it to be administered, to the non-union men at Homestead steel works.

Mr. Dempsey surrendered himself as soon as he learned that a warrant for his arrest had been issued. A similar charge was also made by county Detective Bell-shover against J. M. Davidson, one of the cooks who confessed to the alleged plot, but at this writing he has not been arrested. An information was also made against Pat Gallagher by W. E. Griffiths, charging him with administering the poison on Oct. 5.

Mr. Dempsey waived a hearing and entered bail for court. Attorney L. K. Porter, who represented Mr. Dempsey, said to a reporter: "You can say that neither Mr. Dempsey nor his counsel is annoyed at this charge, as they expected it in view of these alleged confessions which, when the statements made in the affidavits are repeated in judicial proceeding, then we will have something to say."

On account of the assurance of the Carnegie officials and attorneys that Gallagher and Davidson will be produced when wanted, no attempt was made to arrest them yesterday evening. It is likely, however, that the district attorney will insist that they be treated like the others in the case and forced either to give bail or go to jail.

Attorney W. J. Breinen yesterday made application before Judge Stowe for the release of Sylvester Critchlow on bail. Critchlow, it will be remembered, was recently acquitted on a charge of the murder of Pinkerton Detective Connors, but is in jail charged with complicity in the murder of Silas Wayne. Judge Stowe said he would hear the case Saturday morning.

Blaine's Friends Know of It.

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—Last night's Journal said: "The Journal is informed, by one whose information comes directly from the most intimate friend of Mr. Blaine, that whatever the reports sent out, the relatives and friends of Mr. Blaine were told more than three months ago that he could not survive the winter, if indeed the year. His family were prepared then, and are prepared now for this end."

Chicago Grain Man Falls.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Dennis E. Sibley, president of the Sibley Elevator company, failed Monday afternoon with liabilities of $280,000.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

A Building Partly Demolished at Albany, New York.

FLAMES FOLLOW THE DISASTER.

Before the Fire Is Entirely Extinguished a Falling Wall Hurles Seven Firemen Under Eight Feet of Debris—Three of the Men Killed and One Other Liable to Die.

ALBANY, Dec. 20.—Shortly after noon yesterday the boiler in the elevator of the Fort Orange Milling company burst, throwing the roof of the building high in the air, and flames burst forth, while at the same time the "leg" which jutted out from the structure was sent flying over the water. Charles E. Wolverton, a member of the firm, who was in the building, was slightly burned. The fire spread to adjoining buildings, but was put out with but little damage.

The lumber barge lying near the elevator pier was damaged $1,500 by the flames. The fireman, named Ambrose, says that he opened the door of the fire-box of the engine to put in some coal, and the next thing he knew a heavy report occurred and he was thrown back ten feet. He picked himself up and ran outside, but afterward went back and shut down the engine. The loss is estimated at $70,000; insurance, $46,000.

Shortly after 6 p. m., the men of Steamer Company No. 4, who were working inside of the ruins, were ordered home by the chief. As they proceeded to get out the outer wall, which was standing sixty feet high, toppled over without moment's warning, the upper half falling inward, and the lower half outward. Seven men were buried under eight feet of debris.

Willing hands were soon at work to extricate the unfortunate men.

James Shattuck, Jr., Bernard Bamer, Fred Bamer and John Whitnell were the first rescued. Of these only Bernard Bamer was completely buried, and but for the quick work at rescue would have perished. Whitnell and Bamer were seriously injured and were taken to the hospital in the ambulance. The physician said Bernard Bamer would likely die, but thought Whitnell would pull through all right. Shattuck and Fred Bamer were not badly hurt.

The firemen continued working on the ruins and in a few minutes came upon the dead bodies of fireman Charles E. Marshall, foreman of Steamer 4, and John Bridgeford. The body of Frederick Anthon was still in the ruins and was not recovered until 9:30 p. m., and was found to be badly crushed. He was unmarried.

SENATOR GIBSON LAID TO REST.

A Great Throng of Mourners Gather in Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Dec. 20.—The body of Hon. R. L. Gibson, the dead senator from Louisiana, was buried here yesterday. At 9 o'clock the funeral procession began to journey from the Gibson house to St. Paul's Catholic cathedral preceded by the Brown Light infantry; the State College guards with muffled drums and draped flags and carriages containing distinguished party from Washington and the pallbearers, the latter consisting of the following gentlemen: Colonel William Preston Johnson, Major G. L. Hall, ex-Governor J. Proctor Knott, Colonel Stoddard Johnston, C. H. Vorheis, Duncan Gibson, Colonel Kit Chennault and I. S. Johnson.

The immediate escort of the body was the Confederate Veterans' association, numbering over 200 members, while the body was followed by a long line of carriages. Arriving at the cathedral the remains, buried beneath a wealth of floral tributes, rested in the chancel of the cathedral amid the chanting of the requiems for the dead.

A grand solemn requiem mass was celebrated by the Rev. Fathers Barry, Cavanaugh and Van Tansenberg.

After the conclusion of the requiem mass Rev. Father Barry delivered the funeral oration, a chaste and elegant tribute to the dead senator's life and services to his state and country.

Grain Thieves Caught.

BRAZIL, Ind., Dec. 20.—For some time past farmers living two miles west of the city have been suffering from systematic thieving, the perpetrators carrying off large quantities of grain and poultry. Sunday night John Decker caught Gus Black, a well-to-do neighbor, stealing his corn, and Decker made Black shoulder a two-bushel sack of corn and carry it to this city, where Black was turned over to the authorities. Black then confessed to being the perpetrator of all the robberies.

Made Him Beg.

ORRVILLE, O., Dec. 20.—Sunday night, Clyde Zimmerman, Fred Ridge and Charles Oswalt, lads of sixteen, were arrested for destroying a valuable tropical plant at the Wheeling and Lake Erie depot, and were fined $5 and costs. Oswalt's parents compelled him to get down on his knees in the crowded court room and beg for mercy. Ridge is incorrigible, and refused to ask his parents' aid. He was remanded to jail to serve out his fine.

Toughs Resist Arrest.

MANCHESTER, O., Dec. 20.—Saturday night Marshal Robert McChesney, of Manchester, killed Thomas Bouvard and wounded Harry Blue, drunken toughs who resisted arrest. Blue escaped. Frank Pummel, a bystander, was crippled for life by a stray bullet.

Two Assignments.

BUCYRUS, O., Dec. 20.—Will Heinlen assigned, and as the father had endorsed his paper the older Heinlen assigned also. Heinlen's mill was burned recently and crippled him financially.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Kentucky, rain or snow; north winds colder; cold wave in western portions.

THE Louisville Commercial contained one hundred columns of advertisements last Sunday, breaking the record in that line. Falls City merchants know the value of printers' ink, and they are very liberal in their use of it.

IS THE Mason-Forad Company trying another one of its bluffs on the Legislature? The announcement that the company is not going to renew its contract for the convict labor, or that it is going to surrender that labor to the State has come to be a kind of biennial occurrence. Isn't the State able to take care of her convicts?

ONLY the paltry sum of $206,790 is wanted to complete the Philadelphia City Hall, on which some ten millions have already been spent. The tower alone is to cost $700,000. These, the committee is careful to say, are only "approximate" figures. Its report leaves the impression upon one's mind that perhaps a million or two more—or some such trivial matter—may eventually be needed to complete everything.

DEAR READER, you will certainly make a mistake if you fail to call at Ballenger's when you start out to select Christmas gifts. Solid silverware and lovely novelties in jewelry. Goods guaranteed.

BEAR in mind that the biggest stock, the greatest variety and the choicest goods in the grocery line can always be found at Lovell's, corner Third and Market. He is making a special display for the Christmas trade. See advertisement.

AT Concord, Ashenhurst's safe was blown and a lot of jewelry stolen. It is supposed the burglars left on a west bound C. and O. freight.

GEORGE C. BROWN, for fifteen years on the Cincinnati Enquirer's editorial staff, was found dead in bed yesterday morning. His death was caused by congestion of the brain.

MR. MADISON BROWN, of this city, has received a nice Christmas gift from Uncle Sam in the shape of a pension of $12 per month from April 23, 1891. Mr. John Walsh was his attorney.

SECURE your tickets early and avoid the rush to see John F. Sheridan in "Fun on the Bristol." Seats on sale at Nelson's gent's furnishing goods store.

THOMAS is anxious to get out of business, and will sell you fancy cups and saucers, bisque figures, glassware, etc., at less than cost. Call at his Court street china store and buy at your own price.

MY stock of ladies' and gent's gold and filled watches, also diamond pins, rings, studs, neck chains and pendants, is very large. I have decided to cut the prices on them rather than carry them over the holidays. Now is your chance for a bargain, at Murphy's, the jeweler, successor to Hopper & Murphy.

MR. ALLEN T. WHEATLEY is working his way up in the Third National Bank of St. Louis. Since he quit the BULLETIN and accepted a position in the bank a few years ago he has been promoted three times and now holds a responsible clerkship in the house at a nice salary. The BULLETIN is glad to note his success and his many Maysville friends will be gratified to learn of it. Three other ex-Maysvillians also hold lucrative positions in the same bank. They are his brother, Mr. Frank Wheatley, Mr. James Sharp and Mr. Isaac Ballenger.

THE REASON WHY YOU SHOULD BUY YOUR

WEDDING AND HOLIDAY PRESENTS

From Lange's, 181 Vine St., Cincinnati.

Because we have closed out most all our old stock, and have bought the newest and handsomest line of FINE JEWELRY and WATCHES of this season. Having replenished our stock of DIAMONDS from the European Headquarters direct, for spot cash, we are enabled to offer you better inducements than any other house, and our reputation for fair and square dealing is so well known for hundreds of miles around this city, you will consider your own interest and call on us, and do it early to avoid the rush of the last few days before Christmas. We almost forgot to mention that we have an elegant stock of Novelties, Opera Glasses, Gold Spectacles, Gold Pens, Bronzes, Clocks and the largest stock of Silver Tableware in the city. Mail orders promptly attended to. Goods sent for selection.

H. LANGE, The Jeweler,

181 Vine Street, Corner Arcade, Cincinnati.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies use themay California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, make it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

CHRISTMAS and New Year's Days occurring on Sunday, the banks of this city will be closed Monday, December 26th, 1892, and January 2d, 1893. Papers maturing on the 25th December and January 1st must be arranged on the 24th and 31st of December respectively. Chapter 51 Section 2 of the General Statutes, says: "If any of those days named as holidays shall occur on Sunday, the next day thereafter shall be observed as holiday, but bills of exchange, or other paper may be presented for payment or acceptance on the Saturday preceding such holiday, and proceeded on accordingly."

THE remains of the late Senator Randall Lee Gibson, of Louisiana, were interred yesterday at Lexington.

THE Sunday school of the Christian Church has secured Rev. C. C. Kline to give a stereopticon and musical entertainment next Monday night at the church. The public invited.

MESSRS. Mastin & Reeves, of Fern Leaf, have bought from 40,000 to 50,000 pounds of tobacco so far this season, at an average of about ten cents.

LEADS TO KNOWLEDGE, and knowledge is power in all business as in other walks of life. The opportunity is here, and all you have to do is to grasp it, and it is yours. No doubt you have learned that The Old Reliable Red Corner Building is to be remodeled after the Holidays, and there is but one thing to do, and that is to get the large stock of CLOTHING out of the building before the workmen commence. This is no scheme to gull the consumer, but an actual fact, which has been put off as long as possible, and now they MUST go, at YOUR price, not ours. Our immense stock will be thrown on the market Saturday morning, and we will continue the cut prices until everything is closed out, from a Collar Button to the finest Suit or Overcoat sold in the city. Do not listen to anyone, but come and see for yourself.

Cincinnati's New Two-Cent Paper.

The Tribune, Cincinnati's new two cent morning paper, the announcement of the early appearance of which was noted recently, will appear about January 2nd. Its publishers say they will make it not the largest but the best daily paper in Cincinnati; that it will compare favorably with the great two-cent papers of Chicago and other leading cities. It will not be issued on Sunday. The price by mail will be fifty cents per month or $6 a year in advance. Do not pay for a daily paper for the coming year until you have seen the Tribune.

"Fun on the Bristol" To-night.

Sheridan's work in "Fun on the Bristol" largely made the success of that farce. Mr. Sheridan has a partiality for personating females of Irish persuasion. In characters of this kind he is not second even to Neil Burgess, who has long been regarded as the one successful exponent of feminine eccentricities. The last six or eight years of Mr. Sheridan's professional career have been spent in Australia. His return here is due to the activity of Frank Sanger, who thinks there exists a new generation of theater-goers who will appreciate the long-absent actor. Don't fail to see him at the opera house to-night.

The Year's Corn and Wheat Crop.

The country's crop of wheat for 1892 is put at 500,000,000 bushels, and that of corn at 1,600,000,000 bushels. This record has been beaten in wheat three times. The yield was 504,000,000 bushels in 1882, 513,000,000 in 1884, and 612,000,000 in 1891. In corn this year's figures have been surpassed seven times. The crop was 1,617,000,000 in 1882, 1,800,000,000 in 1884, 1,900,000,000 in 1885, 1,565,000,000 in 1886, 1,988,000,000 in 1888, 2,113,000,000 in 1889, and 2,060,000,000 in 1891. While the average wheat harvest of the past ten years was somewhat below that of 1892, that of corn was considerably in advance of this year's yield.

MAYSLEICK.

The water carts have gone under shelter. Plenty of water for all purposes.

Masters Scott and Correl Jackson, sons of Captain G. W. Jackson of Elizaville, were here last week.

Children all busy now going from one house to the other seeing Christmas goods. Of course they aren't any trouble.

Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson left for Dover, her old home, Thursday, from there to Covington, and then through Central Kentucky.

Professor A. H. Cappa, of Louisville, was here last week shaking hands among his many lady friends and enjoying the dinings given him.

We noticed at the funeral of A. M. Peed, Chas. H. Pearce, of the State National Bank, and Dr. A. H. Wall, of Maysville; Jasper A. Hixson, late of Tennessee, and many others well along in years, all friends and associates of Mr. Peed.

Unsurpassed is J. A. Jackson's stock of holiday goods. Trippe mirrors, toilet and maniere cases, work boxes, cuff and collar boxes and many other useful articles. Don't be deceived. Call and see them and you will be pleased. P. - rounize home.

Mrs. Alkman, of Elizaville, sister of John L. Caldwell, died very suddenly on the night of the 13th inst., about midnight. She did her washing on the 12th and got dinner for some company on the 13th, and that night passed away. Her remains were placed in our cemetery the 14th.

A very pleasant day was spent Friday, December 9th, at the home of Eneas Myall, the dining given in honor of Professor A. Cappa, of Louisville, by the charming and entertaining daughters, Misses Anna and Myra. The dinner was beautifully and sumptuously served, the table being decorated with flowers and fruit. Just before bidding the hostess good-bye, Professor Cappa treated the company to some of his rare and beautiful songs. The day will long be remembered by those who were present. Among the guests were Professor A. H. Cappa, of Louisville; Mrs. Dr. Browning and daughter, of Shannon; Mrs. Dr. Wheatley, Mrs. Dr. Davis, Mrs. Joe Brown, Mrs. Alex. Duke and daughter, Misses Susie Fox and Lula Myall, Messrs. Seymour Myall and Spillman Wheatley.
